The ARTIST TEACHER SCHEME is NSEAD's flagship national programme of continuing professional development courses for teachers of art, design and craft. This year it celebrates ten years of continuous expansion with a conference that is both reflective and forward looking and which, in the spirit of the Scheme's central tenet, focuses on the diverse voices and practice of contemporary artists, artist teachers and researchers.

The conference will be chaired by independent curator and art educationalist Vivienne Reiss. The welcoming address will be made by Godfrey Worsdale, Director, BALTIC, Gateshead. Speakers are Fiona Crisp, whose current exhibition, Subterranea, is on show at BALTIC until Sunday 4 October; Wendy Hyde, artist, researcher and teacher; Renée Mussai, Archive Project Manager, Autograph ABP, London; Michaela Ross, artist and researcher; and Judy Thomas, artist and Learning Manager, Waygood Gallery and Studios, Newcastle upon Tyne.

A selection of work by artist teachers and a showreel of artist teachers' work will be on show at BALTIC on the day of the conference.
